When we started Harry's Roadhouse in the summer of 1992, our expectations were modest. We had three or four employees and the early years were a real challenge. The building was falling apart, the kitchen inadequate, the only bathroom (with one toilet) was right by the front door, and Harry was pretty much a full time handyman.

Harry's Roadhouse

Harry's Roadhouse is exactly what its name implies, but it is so much more than a place to have great margaritas. On this visit, we came for breakfast following our weekly visit to the Santa Fe Farmers' Market. Often, there is a wait for a table (you won't be seated until everyone in your party is there).
