It's easy to search Wikibooks by topic, and there are separate sections for recipes and childrens' textbooks. You can download any page as a PDF using a link provided in the left-hand menu, but unfortunately there's no support for other formats. There's also Collection Creator - a handy tool that lets you collate several pages, organize them, and export them together (again, in PDF format). It's a nice feature that enables you to customize your reading material, but it's a bit of a hassle, and is really designed for readers who want printouts. The easiest way to read Wikibooks is simply to open them in your web browser.

Didn T It Rain

" Didn't It Rain ", sometimes given as " Oh, Didn't It Rain ", is an American gospel song. It originated as a Negro spiritual or work song, and appeared in sheet music for piano art song form in a 1919 arrangement by Henry Thacker Burleigh (1866-1949).

Didn't It Rain has some old songs (St Lous Blues, Vicksburg Blues, I Hate a Man Like You, Careless Love) and a lot of new ones. All done in an easygoing New Orleans jazz style. I'm always taken by Jean McClain's vocals so end up repeating "Send Me to the 'Lectric Chair" and "I Hate a Man Like You" until family members get tired of them.

Didn't It Rain is Jason Molina's first perfect record. Recorded live in a single room, with no overdubs and musicians creating their parts on the fly, the overall approach to the recording was nothing new for Molina. But something in the air and execution of Didn't It Rain clearly sets it apart from his existing body of work.
